SECTION 1:

INTRODUCTION AND HISTORY

---

1.1 AASFEE MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of AASFEE is to provide our members with the highest quality of personal and professional growth opportunities. We do this by providing ongoing training and access to a broad network of financial aid professionals spanning all types of institutions.

AASFEE members value integrity, honesty, hard work and camaraderie. It is through our participation in AASFEE that we exhibit these characteristics and through our daily interactions that we live them.

1.2 PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF THE AASFEE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES MANUAL

This Policies and Procedures Manual is designed to be a basic guide to the operations and organizational structure of the Arizona Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (AASFEE). It was assembled to provide general instruction on the features of the Association. This guide is in no way intended to be all-inclusive and can be updated at the discretion of the Board of Directors. This Manual is a living document and as such AASFEE welcomes creative ideas and solutions that may not be outlined in this document.

The first edition of the AASFEE Policies and Procedures Manual was adopted on the ninth day of March 1995. All revisions must be approved by the Board of Directors and recorded in Appendix D.

1.3 HISTORY OF AASFEE

In August 1967, a small group of financial aid professionals met in Flagstaff to discuss the possibility of creating a unified financial aid application to ease the burden of dealing with multiple financial aid forms for financial aid offices and high school counselors. There was much agreement on pursuing this objective and plans were put in motion to produce a High School Counselors Guide. Another outcome was the realization that Arizona could benefit from a permanent organization to meet similar needs and problems.

In August 1968, at another meeting in Flagstaff, the Arizona Association of Financial Aid Officers was established. Joseph E. Bednorz of Northern Arizona University was selected to be the first President. The first Constitution and Bylaws were adopted in March 1969. Also in 1969, AAFAO petitioned the newly formed Western Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators for admission to the organization.

In November 1970, the first Association newsletter was established and was called the AAFAO Bulletin. The editor was Jack Foreman and Hank Kutak and Merle West assisted him.

In 1971-72, Richard Wooten became the first Arizonan to serve as WASFAA President.

The first WASFAA Conference hosted by AAFAO was in 1975, in Phoenix under the leadership of Les Knoll and Merle Lange.

By 1976, the Association had changed its name to the Arizona Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators and had adopted the logo of the outline of the State of Arizona with the Lamp of Knowledge as a centerpiece.

The WASFAA Conference returned to Arizona in 1982 and AASFEE provided another warm western reception, this time under the direction of Vince Roig.

Iris Roach, the first woman to serve as an AASFEE President, in 1982-83 ushered in an era of increased participation by the private trade and technical sector.

The decade of the 1980's saw AASFAA grow from a small group of dedicated professionals to a large, efficient and effective professional organization. AASFAA continued to provide services and meet the needs that were responsible for its creation. The Association has shown time and time again that it has the talent, expertise and commitment to provide leadership in the field of financial assistance.

In 1991, WASFAA was once more the guest of AASFAA for its annual conference. The leadership of Paul Barberini provided for a successful event.

In 1992, after many years of research and hard work, AASFAA was incorporated due to the diligence and commitment of Dan Lupin.

In July 1992, AASFAA entered its twenty-fifth year of service to the profession. We celebrated the past and looked forward to the future.

In July of 1993, AASFAA was the recipient of a state award from the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators. The "NASFAA State Award for Service to Students, Parents or Families", which recognized AASFAA's video, "Cash for College", was disbursed to all high school counselors as well as being telecast on statewide television as an early awareness and outreach campaign. The award recognized the culmination of a three-year effort of Dan Melosi, Diana Mateer, and Dave Briney.

In 1995, AASFAA and the Arizona Commission for Postsecondary Education joined forces to coordinate College Goal Sunday, a statewide program that provides free information and assistance to Arizona students and families applying for college financial aid.

In February 1999, AASFAA went live on the Internet at www.aasfaa.org and in 2000 we continued working towards innovation and change.

In fall 2000, we renamed and awarded the John Medley Financial Aid Advocacy Award to honor our friend and colleague who passed away suddenly in December 1999. The award was presented to John's family at the fall 2000 AASFAA/NAFAA joint conference in Laughlin, Nevada.

During 2001-2002, the number of conference scholarships was increased to members and updates to our bylaws were approved by the membership.

In November of 2002, AASFAA President, Pat Peppin created an Ad Hoc committee to automate the Tribal Funding Application Process. The project created a common electronic FNA application (Tribal funding application) that all Arizona tribes, schools and students could utilize. The tribal funding application process had traditionally been a very labor intensive and paper intensive process for students, schools, and tribes in Arizona. In 2006, AASFAA was recognized by NASFAA as the winner for service to other constituencies for the Automation of the Tribal Funding Application Process.

In March 2018, we went to our membership to collect options for a new logo for AASFAA. We received a few submissions and we presented the current logo along with the three proposed logos to see if the membership wanted to change the logo. A large majority of the membership voted for one of the new logos that was submitted by Nicholas Dehaan from University of Phoenix. AASFAA adopted this new logo effective immediately and began the process of updating our logo on all our materials.
